

GWL Realty Advisors Inc. Spawn Salmon

Location Vancouver, British Columbia
Designer/Architect Douglas Coupland
Duration Nov 2018 - Oct 2022

Scope - Soheil Mosun Limited collaborated closely with world renown Canadian artist, Douglas Coupland, in the manufacturing design, supply & installation of this multi-faceted salmon sculpture titled "Spawn", a public art commission for Vancouver Centre II Office tower, in Vancouver, British Columbia.

Highlights - Custom suspended Salmon sculpture, approximately 30'-0" long x 13'-8" high, fabricated from .090 thick stainless steel with a multi-colour Chameleon effect paint finish. Custom suspension system comprised of steel cable and custom made stainless steel mount and gromet system, and is installed approximately 15' from the floor.

"Spawn" as viewed from below within the atrium of Vancouver Centre II

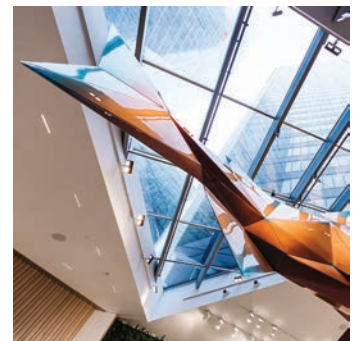

"Spawn" as viewed from the rear approach

The head and body of "Spawn"

"Spawn" as viewed from the exterior at street level

The tail of "Spawn"